Sources: Official statistics from each country and International Financial Statistics, etc. All 2005 figures are preliminary or provisional.

Notes: 1) Figures for China, Thailand, and Taiwan are year-end figures. Figures for the Philippines are medium assumption based on the 1995 population census. Figures for Japan are estimates as of October 1 each year.

2) Figures for China are significantly revised upward (see main text) from the 2004 economic census. Figures for Myanmar, India, Bangladesh, and Pakistan are according to each country's fiscal year. Figures for Thailand represent the per capita GNP. Nominal dollar amounts are calculated from local currency amounts using the annual average US dollar exchange rate.
