

LATIN AMERICA REPORT

2006 Vol.23 No.2

Forum : The Mexican Presidential Elections and the Fragility of Democracy
Jean-François Prud'homme

SPECIAL ISSUE

Latin American Politics in the 21st Century : The Raise of the Left

Mexican Election of July 2, 2006 and Its Aftermath : Deepening of Cleavage in the Society
Taeko Hoshino

Colombia : Agenda for the Second Presidency of Uribe
Noriko Hataya

Peru : Garcia's Second Challenge to Achieve Social Justice
Tatsuya Shimizu

Political Issues of President Bachelet : The Dilemma of a "New Left" Government in Chile
Koichi Kitano

Challenges of Indigenous Government : Difficult Road to Build "A New Bolivia"
Shigeo Osonoi

Midterm Evaluation of the Kirchner Government in Argentina
Koichi Usami

The Change and Continuity of the Party System in Latin America :
An Essay to Analyze the Rise of the Left in the Congressional Elections
Naokatsu Uetani

Latin American Economic Integration at Its Crossroad
Nobuaki Hamaguchi

São Paulo, the Biggest City in South America Constructed by Immigrants :
The History for Social Integration of "Japanese Hospital" Santa Cruz
Ryohei Konta

Roles of Cuba's Mass Organizations in People's Political Participation
Kanao Yamaoka

Book Notes

INSTITUTE OF DEVELOPING ECONOMIES

Japan External Trade Organization

3-2-2, Wakaba,
Mihama-ku, Chiba-shi,
Chiba 261-8545, Japan

通巻72号

ISSN 0910-3317

定価840円 本体価格800円