

Index

- Abenase, 8, 21
- Abenasehene, 41
- abunu* (division into two), 14, 19, 21, 51
- abusa* (division into three), 14, 18–19, 21, 51
- access to products, 69, 72, 79
- agofi* (a type of fixed-rent tenancy contract), 18, 22
- agrarian contracts, 11–34, 100, 104–9
- agyapade* (inheritable property), 25
- Akim Oda, 8
- Akuapem, 7–8, 38
- Akyem, 8
- Akyem Abuakwa, 41
- Akyem Kotoku, 8, 41
- analytical category, 4
- annual labor, 12
 - contract, 28, 30
- Anum, 7–8, 42
- Asante, 7–8, 40, 43, 63
- aseda* (thanks), 37, 40
- Ashanti Region, 7
- Atwima District, 7

- bargaining, 4
- bargaining power, 21, 29–31
 - in the acquisition of land, 52
- Benkyema, 7
- Benkyemahene, 38

- Bepoase, 6–7, 108
 - land rights in, 38–39
- Birim-North District, 8
- Boso, 7–8

- case study method, 5
- change in cocoa production, 2–3
- chiefs
 - divisional, 36
 - paramount (omanhene), 7, 36
 - traditional, 93–95
 - traditional divisional (ohene), 7
- citizens, 36, 40
- class, 24, 56, 97, 107–9
- compani*, 38
- conjugal relations, 62–84
 - and land rights, 65–68
- contract choice, 29–31
 - and farmer life cycle, 28
- contract enforcement, 29
- contract-breaching, 26

- daily wage labor, 12, 28, 95
- duo-local marriage, 62

- Eastern Region, 8
- economic inequality, 85–103
- ethnic groups, 6

- family labor, 12
- Fante, 8
- farm labor, 11–14
 - contribution to, 43–47
 - shortage of, 29
- farmer investment behavior, 106
- farmers
 - capitalistic, 54, 107–9
 - definition of, 10n
 - landless, 25
 - migrant, 54
 - retired, 28
 - women, 61–84
- fieldwork, 4
- fixed-rent tenancy contract, 26, 29–31
- fixed-wage contracts, 29–31
- food crops, 14–16, 18
 - for household use, 76
- gender, 4, 61–84
 - and economic inequality, 85–103
 - and labor arrangements, 72–80
 - and land rights, 62–72
- generational change, 107–9
- Ghana Cocoa Board (COCOBOD), 5
- Gyaha, 8–9, 18, 108
 - land rights in, 41
- Hill, Polly, 2, 54, 101
- hired labor, 11–12
 - contracts, 28
- hometowns, 28
- household, 4–5
 - allocation of land rights within, 62
 - as the smallest unit for analysis, 61
 - heads, 5
 - multiple economic units within, 61
 - resources, 6
 - “unitary” model of, 81
- incentive structures, 2–3, 26, 104–6
 - “combined,” of prices and institutions, 106
- incentives, 1
 - investment, 52
 - long-term, to strengthen land rights, 106
 - non-price, 104–6
 - price, 1, 106
 - production, 26
 - short-term, to increase yield, 106
 - to seek land registration, 54
- income-pooling, 6, 63
- information asymmetry, 26, 28
- information cost, 9n
- inheritance, 7
- institutions, 2–4, 104–9
 - definition of, 9n
- Interstate Succession Law, 1985, 45
- interviews, 5
- Juabeso-Bia District, 6–7
- kin, 26
- labor
 - access to and control over, 80
 - and economic inequality, 95–100
 - arrangements, 11–14
 - communal, 12
 - constraints of unmarried female farmers, 79
 - cost of monitoring, 29–30
 - exchange between spouses, 73
 - mobility, 29
- land, 35–60
 - access to and control over, 69, 72, 79–80
 - accumulation of, 101
 - concentration of, 68
 - constantly negotiate claims to, 35
 - decrease in uncultivated, 54–57, 107
 - disputes over, 43–44
 - distribution of, to landless people, 54–57
 - fragmentation of, 54–57, 107–9
 - gift and inheritance of, 37, 43–60
 - government policy on, 45, 50–54
 - laws, customary, 36–38
 - lineage (abusua asase), 37
 - matrilineal inheritance of, 43–60
 - multiple and overlapping interests in, 105–106
 - multiple claims to the same, 43–50
 - patrilineal inheritance of, 43–60
 - purchased, 43

- registration of, 50–54
 - transfer from landlord to tenant, 25
 - transfer to people outside the landholding lineages, 56
 - uncultivated, 2
 - usufruct rights to, 65
- land registration, 51
 - and rural power structures, 53–54
- land rights, 43–60
 - allocation of, within households, 62
 - distribution of, from men to women, 68
 - farmer strategies to reinforce, 49–50
 - flexible and negotiable nature of, 53
 - gender disparity in, 63–65
 - held by different people, 35
 - in Bepoase, 38–39
 - in Gyaha, 41–43
 - in Nagore, 40–41
 - inheritance of, 37
 - investment incentives and, 52
 - lineage and individual, 47–49
 - purchasing, 37, 92
 - uneven distribution of, within the household, 77–78
 - ways of acquiring, 36
 - See also* landholding rights,
- land tenure systems, 104–9
- Land Title Registration Law, 1986, 50–54
- landholding rights
 - dispersion of, 107–9
 - disputes over, 40
- landholdings
 - alienation of, rights from lineages, 36
 - and economic inequality, 88–95
 - being fragmented, 102
 - fragmentation of, 36
- landlords, 14–34
 - absentee, 26, 29–30, 43
 - supervision of tenants, 26, 30
- landlord-tenant relationships, 4
- life cycles, 3, 28, 100–2, 107–9
 - and economic inequality, 85
 - of female farmers, 72
- marital relations, 26
- marriage, 68
- matrilineal, 6–7, 63
- migrants, 7–8
 - first-generation, 39, 42, 93, 101, 107–9
- Nagore, 7–8, 43, 108
 - land rights in, 40
- New Institutional Economics (NIE), 2
- nhwesoo* (a type of share contract), 18–34, 97–98, 106
- Nyinahin, 7, 40
- Nyinahinhene, 7, 40
- nmoboa* (labor contract), 13, 96
- nonfarm employment, 98–99
- off-farm work, 76
- opportunity cost, 72–78
 - of the wife's labor, 76
- owner-cultivators, 42
- patrilineal, 6–7, 63
- population
 - growth, 2
 - increasing, 106–8
 - pressure, 101
- power relationships, 3–4
 - husband-wife, 78
 - intra-household, 72
- preliminary surveys, 5
- price, 1–2
 - change in relative, of agricultural products, 25
 - incentives, 2
 - of cocoa, 1, 25, 104–6
- production units, 6, 63
- reproductive work, 73, 79
- reputation, 26–27
- research assistants, 5
- resource access, 3, 5
 - See also* access to products; land, access to and control over; labor, access to and control over
- resource use, 3
- risks, 30
 - sharing, 26
- Sefwi, 7, 38
- share contracts, 51

- and villagers' life cycles, 28
 - for food crops, 14
 - reasons for adopting, 29–31
 - two types of, 18–34
- social groups, 4
- social norms, 4
- strangers, 36
- structural adjustment programs, 1, 51
- study locations, 4
- survey methods, 4

- task-contracted labor, 12, 28, 95
- technology, 9n
- tenants, 14–34, 42, 97–98
 - second-generation, 43
- transaction costs, 9n, 30–31

- underreporting of total harvest, 26
- unit of analysis, 4

- unitary household model, 6
- usufruct rights, 106
 - for the production of food crops, 15
 - of land to grow food crops, 22

- village head (odekuro), 7

- wealth ranking, 24, 86–88
- Western Region, 7
- World Bank, 1
- written agreements of the contracts, 19–20, 24–25, 32–33

- yemayenkye* (a type of share contract), 18–34, 40, 52, 54–57, 97–98, 101, 106–109
 - ambiguity in the outcome of, 22
 - features of, 24
 - land-dividing, 21, 24
 - sharing arrangements under, 21